REQUIRED TEXTBOOK AND MATERIALS

A digital copy of The American Yawp: Volume I will be provided to students on blackboard. Students will also need the ability to watch a feature film for their final assignment. Two different films will be provided on blackboard if a student cannot locate a film.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Regular and complete attendance is expected. Attendance means being present and participating for the scheduled instructional period. Arriving substantially late, leaving class early, walking out for an extended period, or failing to return to class without prior instructor approval may be recorded as an absence for that class period. Brief, reasonable needs such as restroom use are not intended to be penalized; however, repeatedly or substantially missing instructional time may affect attendance.

Attendance Consequence: After three (3) unexcused absences, the student's final course grade will be reduced by one letter grade. Communication is important. Students should contact the instructor as soon as possible when circumstances affect attendance. An absence is not considered excused simply because the instructor is notified; documentation or other verification may be required when appropriate. Approved accommodations and documented circumstances will be handled in accordance with applicable college policies and the student's official accommodation letter.

Students with approved accommodations will receive those accommodations as written. If an accommodation permits breaks, leaving the classroom, or attendance flexibility, the student should communicate with the instructor about how the accommodation applies in this course when clarification is needed. An accommodation permitting reasonable breaks or temporary departure from the classroom does not automatically constitute permission to miss most or all of a class meeting unless the approved accommodation specifically provides for that level of flexibility. Students will not be penalized for properly using approved accommodations.

DROP POLICY

If you wish to drop a course, you are responsible for initiating and completing the drop process. For Fall 2026, the last day to drop without academic penalty is September 25, 2026. The last day to drop with academic penalty is October 30, 2026. If you stop attending class and fail to officially drop the course, you will earn an "F" in the course.

TECHNICAL REQUIREMENTS

For the latest technical requirements, including hardware, compatible browsers, operating systems, etc., review the Minimum Computer and Equipment Requirements on the LIT Online Experience page. A functional broadband internet connection, such as DSL, cable, or WiFi is necessary to maximize the use of online technology and resources.

DISABILITIES STATEMENT

The Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 are federal anti-discrimination statutes that provide comprehensive civil rights for persons with disabilities. LIT provides reasonable accommodations as defined in the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Section 504 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, to students with a diagnosed disability. The Special Populations Office is located in the Eagles' Nest Room 129 and helps foster a supportive and inclusive educational environment by maintaining partnerships with faculty and staff, as well as promoting awareness among all members of the Lamar Institute of Technology community. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact the Special Populations Coordinator at (409)-951-5708 or email specialpopulations@lit.edu. You may also visit the online resource at Special Populations - Lamar Institute of Technology \(lit.edu\).

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT STATEMENT

It is the responsibility of all registered Lamar Institute of Technology students to access, read, understand and abide by all published policies, regulations, and procedures listed in the LIT Catalog and Student Handbook. The LIT Catalog and Student Handbook may be accessed at www.lit.edu. Please note that the online version of the LIT Catalog and Student Handbook supersedes all other versions of the same document.

ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE STATEMENT

Lamar Institute of Technology (LIT) recognizes the recent advances in Artificial Intelligence (AI), such as ChatGPT, have changed the landscape of many career disciplines and will impact many students in and out of the classroom. To prepare students for their selected careers, LIT desires to guide students in the ethical use of these technologies and incorporate AI into classroom instruction and assignments appropriately. Appropriate use of these technologies is at the discretion of the instructor. Students are reminded that all submitted work must be their own original work unless otherwise specified. Students should contact their instructor with any questions as to the acceptable use of AI/ChatGPT in their courses.

STARFISH

LIT utilizes an early alert system called Starfish. Throughout the semester, you may receive emails from Starfish regarding your course grades, attendance, or academic performance. Faculty members record student attendance, raise flags and kudos to express concern or give praise, and you can make an appointment with faculty and staff all through the Starfish home page. You can also login to Blackboard or MyLIT and click on the Starfish link to view academic alerts and detailed information. It is the responsibility of the student to pay attention to these emails and information in Starfish and consider taking the recommended actions. Starfish is used to help you be a successful student at LIT.

ADDITIONAL COURSE POLICIES/INFORMATION:

Communication is important- students should contact the instructor for missed assignments.

Class Etiquette Policy:

Please, always be respectful! Be professional when interacting with me and other students. This includes being courteous when sending emails. There may be opportunities where we will discuss current events which connect to the course. I will NOT tolerate being disrespectful to each other. We are here to learn, not judge or show intolerance. We will respect each other's opinions, even if we disagree. Please refrain from making race, gender, religious, or sex-based discriminatory or harassing comments. Disruptive or inappropriate conduct will be addressed in accordance with course and institutional policies and may be referred to the appropriate college administrator. Serious, threatening, discriminatory, or harassing behavior may be reported immediately to the appropriate administration.

Email Communication Policy:

Effective and professional communication is essential in this course. Please follow these guidelines when contacting me via email:

Response Time:

- I will respond to emails within 1 business day (Monday–Friday) for messages sent during the weekday.
- Emails received over the weekend may take up to 2 business days to receive a response.
- Emails sent over the holidays may take up to the next business day to receive a response. Students should refer to the LIT Academic Calendar for clarification on holiday dates.
- If you do not receive a response within these time frames, feel free to send a polite follow-up.

Students are encouraged to contact me directly regarding course questions or concerns and allow the response time outlined above so that I have an opportunity to address the matter.

Email Requirements:

- Use your institutional email account to contact me. Due to FERPA regulations, I will not respond to emails sent from personal accounts (ex. Gmail, Yahoo).
- Include the following in your email for clarity:
 - o A clear subject line (ex., "Question about Exam").
 - o Your full name and course information (ex. "HIST 1301, Section A").

Emails that do not follow proper communication guidelines will receive a delayed response, as I will need additional time to identify the student and locate the relevant course details.

Additional Notes:

- Review the syllabus or class announcements before e-mailing to ensure your question hasn't already been addressed.

- For urgent matters, consider setting an appointment.

By following these guidelines, we can ensure clear and efficient communication

Late Work- Timely submission of assignments is essential for your success in this course. To ensure fairness and maintain academic standards, late work will not be accepted except in cases of documented emergencies or extenuating circumstances approved by the instructor.

Key Points:

- Assignments must be submitted by the stated deadline in the syllabus or as announced in class/Blackboard.
- Late submissions, even by a few minutes, will not be graded unless prior arrangements have been made or an emergency has been communicated and documented.
- Technical difficulties (ex. computer crashes, internet issues) are not considered valid reasons for late work. It is your responsibility to plan accordingly and allow extra time for unforeseen issues.

Exceptions:

In rare cases, such as illness or family emergencies, late work may be accepted at the instructor's discretion. Such exceptions require:

1. Prompt communication with the instructor before or immediately after the missed deadline.
2. Appropriate documentation (ex. doctor's note or other evidence).

This policy encourages time management and mirrors real-world deadlines. If you have concerns about meeting a deadline, please communicate with the instructor in advance.

Grading Timeline for Late Work:

Please note that late submissions may not be graded as the same priority as on-time work. If you submit an assignment late, expect a delay in receiving your grade and feedback.

Avoiding Late Submissions:

- Manage your time effectively and plan ahead for due dates.
- Communicate with the instructor before the deadline if you anticipate any issues.
- Submit work early whenever possible to account for potential technical difficulties.

Extra Credit-

Extra credit will be offered throughout the semester in various forms. Students will be informed of these opportunities in advance through Blackboard announcements. Extra credit is optional, but it is highly encouraged for students seeking to improve their overall grade to complete extra credit assignments early.

Extra credit points will be applied at the end of the semester in a manner that benefits students the most, typically toward the lowest graded assignments. However, extra credit cannot replace missing work and will NOT be applied to assignments that have not been completed or that carry a zero. All extra credit opportunities and point values are determined at the instructor's discretion.

Extra credit is intended to supplement completed coursework and is not an alternative to completing required assignments.

COURSE RESPONSIBILITIES & POLICY CLARIFICATIONS

Student Responsibility for Course Information

Students are responsible for regularly reviewing Blackboard announcements, LIT email, grades, assignment instructions, due dates, and instructor feedback. Students should not rely solely on reminders. Failure to read an announcement, email, grade comment, or assignment feedback does not automatically extend a deadline or an opportunity to revise or resubmit work.

Communication Regarding Missed Work

Students are responsible for contacting the instructor directly through their LIT email regarding missed assignments, extensions, or circumstances affecting their coursework. Communication with classmates, advisors, facilitators, or other college personnel does not replace communication with the instructor unless circumstances prevent the student from contacting the instructor directly.

Extensions

An extension is not approved until the instructor confirms the revised deadline. Requesting an extension does not, by itself, constitute approval. When an extension is approved, the student is responsible for completing the assignment by the revised deadline. Additional extensions are not automatic and must be discussed with the instructor.

Approved Accommodations and Deadline Flexibility

Approved accommodations will be implemented in accordance with the student's official accommodation letter. Students with accommodations involving flexibility with deadlines are still expected to communicate with the instructor when an extension is needed unless the accommodation specifically states otherwise. Deadline flexibility does not automatically change every assignment deadline. Students should contact the instructor as soon as reasonably possible regarding a deadline affected by an accommodation so that an appropriate revised deadline can be established. Retroactive requests will be considered according to the approved accommodation and the circumstances involved. Course materials or assignments being available in advance does not eliminate approved accommodations; advance availability is intended to provide students additional flexibility to plan and work ahead when possible.

Closed Assignments and Reopening Requests

Assignments may close in Blackboard after the stated deadline. Closed assignments will not automatically be reopened. A student requesting that an assignment be reopened must contact the instructor and explain the circumstances that prevented timely completion. Reopening an assignment is not guaranteed and will be determined according to the late-work policy, approved accommodations, documented circumstances, and the academic calendar.

Assignment Submission Responsibility

Students are responsible for verifying that assignments have been successfully submitted to Blackboard before the deadline and that the correct, complete, and readable file was uploaded. Students should review their submission after uploading when possible. An attempted upload, blank file, corrupted file, or incorrect document does not automatically constitute an on-time submission. If an incorrect or unreadable file is submitted, the student should contact the instructor immediately upon discovering the problem. Acceptance of a corrected submission will be determined by the instructor based on the circumstances and submission history.

Technical Difficulties

Routine technical difficulties, including computer problems, internet interruptions, or waiting until immediately before a deadline to submit work, do not automatically qualify for an extension. Students should plan to submit work early enough to address foreseeable technical problems. If a significant Blackboard or institutional system outage occurs, the instructor may adjust deadlines as appropriate.

Grades, Feedback, Revisions, and Resubmissions

Students are encouraged to ask questions about grades and feedback. Before contacting the instructor about a grade, students should review the assignment instructions, rubric (if applicable), and instructor feedback. Students should identify the specific grading criterion or feedback they would like clarified. Requests for clarification are welcome; disagreement with a grade does not automatically result in a regrade. When an opportunity to revise or resubmit is offered through Blackboard feedback, email, or another course communication, the student is responsible for reviewing and responding within the stated time. Failure to review feedback does not automatically extend the revision or resubmission opportunity.

Artificial Intelligence (AI) Use in This Course

AI use depends on the assignment. (1) AI Required/Permitted: Some assignments specifically require or permit AI; students must follow the instructions for that assignment. (2) Limited AI Assistance: When permitted, AI may be used for brainstorming, organization, grammar assistance, or clarification of concepts, but it may not replace the student's own historical analysis or original work. (3) AI Prohibited: AI-generated responses are prohibited on assignments specifically designated as individual analysis/reflection, including journal entries, discussion responses, quizzes, and exams unless the instructor states otherwise. Submitting AI-generated information as one's own work, fabricated quotations, nonexistent sources, false citations, or sources the student has not actually reviewed may result in a grade penalty or zero in accordance with assignment requirements and applicable academic-integrity policies.

Unauthorized Assistance on Quizzes and Exams

Unless specifically identified as open-resource, quizzes and exams must be completed using only materials authorized by the instructor. Unauthorized assistance includes, but is not limited to, internet searches, AI tools, answer-sharing websites, another person, unauthorized notes, or copying/pasting material from external sources.

Cultural Artifact Rough Draft and Final Submission

The purpose of the Rough Draft is to receive feedback before completing the Final Cultural Artifact Assignment. Students are responsible for reviewing and applying instructor feedback to the final submission. Submitting the final assignment without addressing significant issues identified in rough-draft feedback may negatively affect the final grade. The Cultural Artifact Assignment is an analysis of the selected film as a historical cultural artifact. The discussion should remain focused on the film, its scenes, historical interpretation, directorial choices, and historical accuracy rather than becoming primarily a biography of a historical figure or a general report about an event.

Source Verification

Students are responsible for verifying that all sources are real, accessible, credible, and support the information for which they are cited. Fabricated sources, fabricated quotations, or citations to sources that cannot be verified will not receive credit and may be addressed under applicable academic-integrity policies. A citation alone does not demonstrate research; students must meaningfully incorporate information from their sources into their analysis.

End-of-Semester Deadline

December 9, 2026 is the final deadline for eligible coursework unless otherwise authorized by the instructor or required by an approved accommodation. Students should not wait until the final days of the semester to request opportunities to complete work missed earlier in the term. Missing assignments will not automatically be reopened at the end of the semester for the purpose of raising a course grade.

Syllabus and Course Policy Acknowledgment

Students are responsible for reviewing the syllabus, course calendar, assignment instructions, and Blackboard announcements. Completion of any introductory syllabus activity confirms that the student has been provided access to these course expectations and knows where to locate course policies and deadlines.

ASSIGNMENTS- The following are the types of assignments that students will complete throughout the course. Students are responsible for following instructions and completing these in a timely manner

QUIZZES: Students will take quizzes online. There are two types of quizzes: primary source reading quizzes and lecture review quizzes. Quizzes are worth 100 points each.

- a. Primary source reading quizzes: These quizzes are based on the information the student reads from the primary source readings, as scheduled.
- b. Lecture review quizzes: These quizzes are to test the student's knowledge over lecture material and serve as a review for the class.
- c. Students that miss assignments (like quizzes) cannot make up the assignment unless the student had a documented sickness or a documented related absence. The student must receive permission from the instructor to make up for a missed assignment.
- d. Any student caught cheating on a quiz will receive a zero for that quiz. For online classes, cheating includes using information found online, like Wikipedia or other similar sites. DO NOT USE WIKIPEDIA TO STUDY FOR THE QUIZZES. All information should be found in the lectures. Do NOT Copy and Paste responses from websites.

EXAMS: study material for the exams will come primarily from the lectures. Exams are worth 100 points total.

- a. Students that miss a test are only allowed to make up the exam if the student has an unavoidable emergency. The student must contact the instructor as soon as possible to schedule a make-up exam.
- b. Any student caught cheating on an exam will receive a zero on that exam. Cheating on an exam includes using sources like Wikipedia to answer questions. DO NOT USE WIKIPEDIA TO STUDY FOR THE EXAM. Do NOT Copy and Paste responses from websites.

JOURNAL ENTRIES: Journal Entries, as scheduled, shall consist of a student's own reflection and analysis of that chapter's lecture and information given regarding the historical topic covered. Students are expected to write at least 100 words per entry and include specific information, evidence from the lecture given. Long quotations and/or block quotations are NOT allowed. Failure to comply with these requirements will result in a low grade or zero for the assignment. This includes the use of outside online information, and the use of AI (Ex. ChatGPT).

DISCUSSION POSTS: Discussion post, as scheduled, should be in response to the instructor's prompt for that chapter's lecture. Students shall use their own analysis and reflection to respond to these prompts. Additionally, students also need to include specific information/evidence from the covered lecture. Entries should be at least 100 words. As part of the full discussion post grade, students should also respond to at least 2 other classmates in a courteous manner, with a response of at least 50 words to each classmate. Long quotations and/or block quotations are NOT allowed. Failure to comply with these requirements will result in a low grade or zero for the assignment.

POSTERS: Posters, as scheduled, shall consist of a student's own creativity. A one-page poster should be used to demonstrate originality and connection to the information given regarding the historical topic covered. An image reverse search will be used to verify originality if needed. Failure to comply with these requirements will result in a low grade or zero for the assignment. AI can be used for poster creation such as Canva or ChatGPT

AI CONVERSATION: Students will engage in an AI-powered conversation with a historical figure related to the current unit. They must ask thoughtful questions and complete at least five meaningful interactions. Afterward, students will submit a brief reflection (minimum three sentences) explaining how the conversation deepened their understanding of the topic. This assignment encourages critical thinking and ethical use of AI in historical learning.

MOVIE BIBLIOGRAPHY CHECK: Students will submit the title of their selected movie and a mini bibliography with two sources: one secondary source and one historical context source. Each citation must include a brief explanation of its credibility and relevance. This assignment is required before submitting the Rough Draft. Students must verify that sources are real—AI tools may provide inaccurate or fake citations.

ROUGH DRAFT ASSIGNMENT & FINAL ASSIGNMENT: Students will turn in their Rough Draft assignment and their final submission for the final assignment to Blackboard on the due date scheduled (or earlier).

There is a list of approved films in the "Cultural Artifact" assignment folder for the class. The student gets to pick ONE film out of the suggested film list. The student is responsible for researching their movie option prior to selection. Ex. Rating, Content, Etc. If a student has a film they would like to pick, that is not on the approved list, it must be first approved by the instructor.

There are two portions to this assignment: Rough Draft Assignment and Final Submission of the Assignment. The Rough Draft assignment is not a typical rough draft of your final paper. It is a question-and-answer assignment, the form can be found on Blackboard.

Final Submission Options: Students will choose a historical movie and opt for ONE of the following formats:

- Recorded Presentation: A visual analysis comprising movie clips/images, personal analysis, evidence, lasting 10 minutes or more.

OR

- Written Analysis: A comprehensive 3-page essay interpreting the historical accuracy and directorial choices.

Students shall choose the option they are the most comfortable with. Additional information and requirements can be found in the assignment folder on Blackboard.

a. For extensions, the instructor should be contacted immediately. Students will receive a zero for the assignment if they do not turn in their assignments. Students should keep in mind that the Rough Draft and Final Assignment are core assignments, which means they are mandatory.

No work will be accepted after December 9th, 2026.
